When I finished reading Forever a Lord by Delilah Marvelle, I was overwhelmed with emotion. How was I to know these characters in the book felt like old friends to me. I was glad when Nathaniel's story was told. If you remember, we met Nathaniel in the earlier books titled Forever and a Day and Forever a Lady.

The story is one that travels through the series and finishes up with Forever a Lord. It's one of the most intriguing I've read in some time. This is the first I've listened to Marvelle. I do hope to find other books that are audio. I do suggest you start with the Prequel Forever Mine, which is an ebook.

Today's selection is Forever a Lord by Delilah Marvelle. I have to say I enjoyed this story. Especially, since we have drawn to the end I believe. It's always hard to see the end. In the previous books you have seen Edward Coleman, but not really in the forefront. Now we get to learn more about him and the past he wishes to forget.
